BOOKING DETAILS

This Oslo bike tour is perfect for customers looking to learn more about everyday life and culture in Norway's capital. As well as exploring the many examples of outstanding Norwegian architecture, you'll learn about important elements of Norwegian society and how history has contributed to creating this progressive culture. You'll visit sights such as the City Hall (home of the Nobel Peace Prize ceremony) and the medieval /Renaissance castle of Akershus Festning.

You'll visit the main sights of the city and travelling by bike means you'll see the best of Oslo in just 3 hours. Visit iconic landmarks such as the modern buildings along the harbour including the stunning Astrup Fearnley Modern Art Museum, where there's an optional swim for those who want to cool off (weather and time permitting). You'll explore more of Oslo's architecture with a visit to the Akershus Festning castle where you can walk the walls and enjoy spectacular views. Continue your appreciation of Norwegian art with a visit to the world-famous Vigeland Sculpture Park which contains over 200 sculptures from one artist, Gustav Vigeland.

One of the best parts of this tour is discovering the city by bike. You'll pedal down the picturesque Karl Johans Gate and through the natural sanctuary of the Royal Palace gardens. You're never far from nature in Oslo! And don't forget that your guide will give you recommendations for the best places to eat and drink and any other must-visit spots in Oslo.
